

We help you save, and make, money by being environmentally and socially responsible!

Menu of Services

3Estrategies works with companies and government agencies to create profitable, environmentally sound green buildings and developments, clean energy projects and low carbon companies.

Our services include:

General Business Development :

- Sustainable design charrettes / Visioning workshops
- Strategic planning / business plan development
- Stakeholder engagement / community relationship building
- Marketing, communications, public relations development
- Corporate sustainability plans / programs
- Political relationship development
- Connecting clients to investors
- Renewable energy integration options
- Carbon inventories and emission reduction plans
- Site selection analysis for new and expanding companies

Clean Energy Company/ Project Assistance:

- Technical expertise on clean energy technologies and products
- Securing tax and cash incentives available for clean energy projects

Green Building and Sustainable Development Assistance:

- Green Building, eco-industrial design assistance
- LEED, Earth Advantage and other third party certification processes and form filing
- Construction site recycling options
- Securing tax and cash incentives available for green building projects

(OVER)

Sustainable Business Operations:

- Sustainable Building and Facility Assessments
- Energy audits
- Waste prevention and recycling strategies
- Designing sustainable operations plans and procedures for manufacturing and business activities

Economic Development / Policy Development Services:

- Green jobs status and opportunities analysis
- Clean energy policy development
- Clean energy / green building policy options (municipal, state, national)

For more information go to www.3Estrategies.org. We invite you to call for a free 20 minute assessment of your project.

(OVER)